

A Ceremony of Remembrance at the RoadPeace Wood

You are invited to attend an annual gathering which brings families and friends together to remember all those killed on our roads

Saturday 12 August 2017, 2.30pm

RoadPeace Wood, National Memorial Arboretum, Alrewas, Staffordshire, DE13 7AR

RoadPeace

The national charity for road crash victims

About the Ceremony

This annual gathering and ceremony is to remember all those who have been killed in a road crash. It is an opportunity to meet others who have been bereaved and visit the RoadPeace Wood, where trees are dedicated to road crash victims.

All are invited to attend a service in the chapel followed by a short walk and ceremony at the RoadPeace Wood, and then refreshments.

About the National Memorial Arboretum

The National Arboretum is on the A38 between Lichfield and Burton-on-Trent. Restaurant and picnic facilities are available.

Open 9am-5pm, admission free, parking £3

Please RSVP to let us know if you are coming. If you are unable to attend but would like us to read out the name of a loved one for you during the service, please get in touch with your dedication.
